So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

188.7 FLAG CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Mr. CANADY, pursuant to House Resolution 173, called up the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 79) proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States authorizing the Congress and the States to prohibit the physical desecration of the flag of the United States.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the time for debate was extended by ten minutes, equally divided between and controlled by Mr. KOLBE and Mr. MONTGOMERY.

After further debate,

Pursuant to House Resolution 173 the previous question was considered as ordered.

The joint resolution was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. BRYANT moved to recommit the joint resolution to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report the joint resolution back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after the date of its submission for ratification:

"ARTICLE—

"SECTION 1. The Congress and the States shall have power to prohibit the burning, trampling, soiling, or rending of the flag of the United States.

"SECTION 2. For the purpose of this article of amendment, the Congress shall determine by law what constitutes the flag of the United States, and shall prescribe procedures for the proper disposal of a flag."

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House recommit said joint resolution with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. OXLEY, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. BRYANT objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
